

Bæredygtig mobilitet i fremtidens by

Mobilitet i hverdagslivet

- Hverdagslivet er overfyldt med valg
- Vi står alene med ansvaret for at skabe det gode liv
- Mobiliteten bliver individualiseret og rutineret

Bilens betydning

Kun hvis vi tager det seriøst hvad folk føler om og i deres biler... kan vi begynde at forstå hvad der er nødvendigt for at skabe en ændring væk fra nutidens bilkultur...til en mere social og miljømæssig ansvarlig transport kultur. (Sheller 2004)

...omkring 100 år efter bilens fødsel er oplevelsen af at køre i bil blevet en del af vores 'teknologiske underbevidsthed' og den producerer en forståelse af verden som vi i tiltagende grad ser som en selvfølge. (Nigel Thrift)

Historiefortælling

- Historier har en fundamental overbevisende betydning når det handler om at lave beslutninger om fremtidens byer. (James Throgmorten 1996; Leonie Sandercock 2003)
- Det at artikulere og fortælle historier forstærker den transformative evne hos planlæggere til at skabe det som ikke eksisterer endnu. (Hajer 2015)
